

Senior Marketer - Financial Solutions

Position available in London, UK

Invescap is a Swiss-based investment management company specialized in the design, engineering and distribution of best of class financial solutions in the field of private lending. Established and recognized on the European market as a key market player, Invescap is now further growing its activities on the UK market.

As part of its United Kingdom development plan, Invescap is now hiring a Senior Marketer, with position located in London, to develop its distribution on the UK market.

Key Responsibilities:

- To be a key player in the distribution of financial solutions in the field of private lending offered by Invescap
- To actively grow Invescap's investor network with new qualified investors in and outside financial centres
- To actively develop and grow Invescap's asset under management
- To manage, realize and grow a sales pipeline of British qualified investors.

Requirements:

- Extensive experience in the sales and distribution in the financial industry
- An established relationship network with British qualified investors
- Adequate university education or equivalent
- Excellent communication skills orally and written
- Fluency in English required
- British citizen or holder of a British permanent residency permit is essential.

Benefits:

- Invescap will offer to the best selected candidate a most competitive compensation level with associated benefits as well as exceptional career development opportunities.

To apply:

Please send your resume

By email to :

hr@invescap.ch

or by mail to :

INVESCAP
Human Resources Department
24 Grand-Rue CH-
1204 Genève
Suisse